Red and Green Newsletter

Classroom topics

Next week we are focussing on 'Babies and Me,' talking about what we were able to do as babies, and how we have changed. Please send in a picture of your child as a baby with their name on the back. If you only have digital copies, please send to office@edgewood.notts.sch.uk. We would also like to develop a 'talking table' with baby items on. If you have any baby toys, clothes, equipment, bibs, bottles etc we could use and play with, we would be very grateful of them. We are also in shortage of dolls clothes if you have any not being used. Our big book next week is 'Whatever Next' about a bear which goes into space.

Reading

Please ensure you ask your child to read their reading book a minimum of 3 times in a week and note this down in your child's reading diary. There is some guidance in there if you are unsure what to write. Your child can then begin earning stamps in their book which build to certificates. We are intending on running a workshop to support how you can read at home, with the date to follow.

Parent group

Following a suggestion, Mrs Wyatt has set up Red and Green class boxes for you to drop off any notes or slips in a morning. These boxes will be outside the classrooms from 8.40 each morning. Parent group is Tuesday from 2.15pm

Thursday morning is reading morning

On a Thursday you are welcome to come into the classroom at 8.50 – 9.00am to read with your child in an area of the classroom. A teacher will be on the carpet to read with those who don't have an adult.

Uniform

Please ensure you have labelled all of your child's uniform clearly with their name and ensure your child has a coat in school at all times. Please can you check the labels in your child's uniform as a few children are missing items of clothing.

Baking

Thank you for the baking contributions received. Next week we will be baking biscuits.

Thank you in anticipation of your support
