Building skills and values for life

Friday, 6 November 2015

Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome to this week's newsletter. It has been rather quiet in school this week with lots of the children out on Residential.

Kingswood 2015

It has been a mixed week weather-wise for the children on residential but that has not stopped them from enjoying a wide range of activities both inside and out. The children have set a great example to others, from lining up for dinner and tidying up after themselves, to the manners that are displayed towards the instructors and catering staff. In their groups, they have also been supportive of one another (particularly with overcoming fears). I hope you have all enjoyed the updates on Facebook from the staff accompanying the children.

Changes to lunchtime arrangements

Since we have returned from half term, we have decided to move the children eating sandwiches into the main school hall. The children have welcomed this change and are enjoying eating in the school hall.

School Tea Towels – the children have once again drawn a self-portrait which we have printed onto tea towels. These are great value at only £3 each making them great Christmas gifts for the whole family! Look out for the order forms going home today.

SAVE THE DATE – Our Christmas Fair will be held on Friday 11th December at 3:30pm. If you can help or have any new ideas for this event we are meeting on Tuesday 10th November straight after school in the dining room - everyone is welcome.

Parents Evening 23rd and 25th November 2015

I am currently collating all the reply slips for this; details of your appointments will be sent out giving you at least a week's notice.

Attendance Every School Day Counts

Congratulations to Rosa who achieved 100% attendance in the week before half term. Keep up the good work!

Stay safe and enjoy the firework displays over the weekend.
