Newsletter

I hope that you have all had a good week - I have been away with the year 5 & 6 children on the residential. It is fair to say that we have tired them all out and parents should enjoy a quiet evening tonight! They have behaved impeccably, and we are very proud of them. I will share some photos with you next week. Next week, it is the last week before we break for the half-term and I think we are all ready for a well-earned rest!

Lunchtime update

We have given out well done slips this week to:

- Reuben B
- Ahad
- Rona-Mae
- Isla R
- Halley
- Elsie S-W
- Harrison H
- Stanley L
- Olivia W
- Jake G

These were for setting a good example.

Love Yourself Day

On Thursday the 13th of February children are invited to come in non- uniform / something they love to celebrate Valentine's Day! All children will also be coming home with a Valentines treat on this day! We hope you have a lovely half term!

Thank you

Lauren and Laura x
Edgewood PTA

We think you are fantastic just the way you are. So, come to school as "you", no uniform, in whatever you love

Children's Belongings

Children in school lose their things daily. Staff do their best to ensure that children do not misplace items of clothing, water bottles and lunch boxes, unfortunately this does still happen. It would be extremely helpful if all children's items were clearly labelled. A tip for the younger children's gloves would be to thread them on string through the arms of their coats to prevent them getting lost.

Please can all items be labelled.

Any unnamed items left in school after we have closed for this half-term will be donated to the local charity shop.

Parent/Carer Workshop on Supporting Sensory Regulation

We are fortunate to be hosting the next parent/carer workshop, run by our Family SENCo, Rachel Hazeldine, and a speech and language therapist, Beth Atkinson, both of whom regularly attend our school and support staff who work with pupils requiring extra support.

If your child struggles in the environment with noises, smells or movements, and has difficulty with eating and touching different textures, please come along for more information and to learn some useful strategies. Parents and carers from nearby schools have also been invited, so this is a good opportunity to chat with other parents/carers who may be in a similar position. There's no need to book or request to attend. If you are interested, simply turn up to the event. Please see the flyer below.
